One of the truly great poets of the South was Father Abram Joseph Ryan, born in Norfolk, Virginia, August 15, 1839. Very famous are his poems, "The Conquered Banner" and "The Sword of Robert E. Lee." He was bravest of the brave in the War, and his memory is precious as his birthday approaches. We offer today a few lines from Father Ryan:

In the hush of the valley of silence
I dream all the songs that I sing;
And the music floats down the dim Valley
Till each finds a word for a wing.
That to hearts like the Dove of the Deluge,
A message of Peace they may bring.
